

Please leave Indiana's Telephone Privacy law alone! It has been a godsend and a blessing to this homemaker who used to field at least a dozen annoying telemarketing calls each week. Now, the only calls I receive are the ones I'm expecting. I have a toddler and am about to have a newborn, so my time needs to be spent tending to the needs of my children, not trying to evade dogged telemarketers. Please, PLEASE, don't mess with our Indiana Telephone Privacy law!
